Woodlawn Farmers' Club. The February meeting of the Woodland Farmers' Club was held at "Sherwood," the residence of Frank Wilkinson, on the 17th inst., President Harrison in the chair.

In the absence of the secretary J. N. Gibbs was elelected secretary pro tem.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A report from the committee ap-pointed at last meeting, to attend the meeting at Alexandria for the consideration of road matters, &c., was called for, and the president read a communition from Major Hine, chairman of the committee, stating that he considered it unnecessary or inexpedient to call the committee together for any further action in the matter, and asked to be released from further service.

This seemed to be rather an extra-...50 cents ordinary method of procedure, and a 75 cents | general discussion of this special sub-ject and road matters in general followed, which developed the fact that a miscarriage had taken place some-where along the line—the bottom having apparently dropped out of the pro ceedings in Alexandria county and de-moralizing affairs so that, when E. E. Mason made a motion to that effect, the committee was discharged.

The next meeting will be at "Hunt-

MADE LOVE TO HER AUST .- A remarkable case was tried in Criminal Court at Pittsburg, Pa., on Wednesday. Ada Virginia Martin, a 16-year-old girl of Perryopolis, was convicted of obtaining $29 by false pretenses from her well-to-do maiden aunt, Misse Celia Eberhart, of Allegheny, who is 42 years old, and who was tired of single life. Ada got the money by making love to her aunt by letters under the name of John Franklin, of Scottdale. Her aunt became engaged to marry the mythical Franklin, and sent him money through Ada. Judge Ewing expressed the opinion that the girl was morally insane, and deferred passing sentence on her, so that he might have time to inquire into the case. Ada is a telegraph operator and a typewriter, employed by the West in Union Telegraph Company, and is known as the "Baby Operator." She has a petite form, dark hair and sparkling eyes, and is exceeding pretty. Ada said, after she was convicted, that it was all a cruel mistake, and if it wasn't that John Franklin had gotten into serious trouble with his sister-inlaw and had to leave suddenly to avoid arrest, he would be on hand to clear

Ada testified that her aunt grumbled at one time about sending Franklin any more money. Ada then said she would tell Franklin this. "Don't do it," said the aunt. "I am going to have a man. I don't care a d—what it costs. I'm tired of being alone."S. S. Baird testi-fied that he hunted for Franklin but could not find him. The photograph and 27 letters, which were identified as Ada's handwriting, was all the proof they had that Franklin existed.
